

Law Reports

[2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 1–94

Part 1

The Criminal Appeal Reports

General Editor: Clare Barsby,
M.A., of Gray's Inn, Barrister

Consultant Editor: Daniel Janner QC,
M.A. (Cantab), Master of the Bench, Middle Temple

Assistant Editors: Eleanor Ebbatson, of Gray's Inn, Barrister

Matthew Brotherton,
M.A. (Cantab), of Lincoln's Inn,
Barrister

SWEET & MAXWELL

KEY WORD INDEX

References in this index are to case number.

Acquittal—Order for retrial—New evidence—Complainant unavailable at rape trial—Crown offering no evidence and defendant acquitted—Complainant subsequently available—Crown applying for acquittal to be quashed owing to “new and compelling evidence”—Whether complainant’s evidence “new”—Whether “adduced” in proceedings in which defendant acquitted—Whether in interests of justice for order to be made—Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c.44) ss.76, 78, 79

R. v Henry (Duwayne)

Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 1

Conspiracy to supply drugs—Defendant in possession of substantial sum of money in cash—Crown alleging that cash the proceeds of drug dealing—Defendant putting forward innocent explanation for possession of cash—Application to call expert evidence in support of defendant’s explanation—Whether expert’s evidence relevant to issue of defendant’s state of mind with regard to origin of the money—Whether evidence wrongly excluded—Significance of non-compliance with rules of court relating to content of expert’s report—Criminal Procedure Rules 2014 (SI 2014/1610) rr.33.3, 33.4

R. v Berberi and Others

Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 2

Court of Appeal—Jurisdiction—Prosecutor’s appeal—Judge handing down ruling that defendants in complex fraud case having no case to answer—Crown given one hour to consult with Revenue—Court reconvening and Crown announcing intention to appeal—Whether Crown complying with requirement to give notice of intention to appeal “immediately” after ruling—Whether Court of Appeal having jurisdiction to hear appeal—Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c.44) s.58(4)—Criminal Procedure Rules r.67

R. v Quillan and Others

Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 3

Evidence—Hearsay—Res gestae evidence—Evidence of 999 calls—Defendant charged with assault by beating—Victim refusing to sign statement given to police owing to fear of retaliation by defendant—Victim not giving evidence at trial—Justices admitting transcript evidence of 999 calls—Whether evidence correctly admitted under res gestae principle—Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c.44) ss.114(1)(b),(d), 118(1), (4)(a)

Barnaby v Director of Public Prosecutions

Queen’s Bench Divisional Court [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 4

KEY WORD INDEX

Homicide—Unlawful act manslaughter—Mens rea—Young persons setting fire to derelict building and homeless person in building killed by fire—Whether judge having correctly directed jury as to dangerousness of unlawful act and mens rea of offence

R. v F(J) and E(N)
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 5

Indictment—Particulars of offence—Defendant charged with conspiracy to rob—Indictment failing to state that anyone had been put in fear or subjected to unlawful force—Whether particulars sufficient—Whether indictment invalid—Indictment Rules 1971 (SI 1971/1253) r.6(b)—Criminal Procedure Rules r.14.2(1)

R. v Clarke (Dean)
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 6

Practice—Retrial—Indictment containing two counts presented to jury as alternatives but not factually or legally identical—Jury convicting on one count but unable to agree on other count—Whether Crown barred from pursuing retrial on undetermined count

R. v Akhtar (Itzaz Nafeez)
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 7