

The Criminal Appeal Reports

General Editor: Clare Barsby,
M.A., of Gray's Inn, Barrister

Consultant Editor: Daniel Janner QC,
M.A. (Cantab), Master of the Bench, Middle Temple

Assistant Editors: Eleanor Ebbatson,
of Gray's Inn, Barrister

Matthew Brotherton,
M.A. (Cantab), of Lincoln's Inn,
Barrister

KEY WORD INDEX

References in this index are to case number.

Evidence—DNA evidence—DNA profile on movable object—Defendant charged with burglary—Prosecution case consisting solely of DNA found on duct tape at scene and previous conviction of similar offence—Whether sufficient evidence for case to go to jury

R. v Bryon
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 21

Evidence—Prosecution evidence—Child, indecent photograph of—Allegedly indecent photographs of children found on defendant's mobile telephone—Prosecution seeking to adduce photographs to establish defendant's sexual interest in children—Whether jury to decide whether photographs indecent

R. v M(A)
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 22

Judge—Ad hoc appointment—Independent and impartial court—Retired judge from another jurisdiction appointed ad hoc to conduct defendants' criminal trials—Whether judge having sufficient security of tenure to maintain independence and impartiality—Whether breach of constitutional right to trial before independent and impartial court

Turks and Caicos Islands—Practice—Trial by judge alone—Judge deciding trial without jury in interests of justice—Whether criminal standard of proof to be applied in reaching decision—Trial without a Jury Ordinance 2010 (No.26 of 2010) s.4

Misick and Others v R.
Privy Council [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 23

Legal representation—Choice—Fraud investigation—Employees of suspect company required to attend interview in Serious Fraud Office investigation—SFO declining to permit interviewees' choice of legal representative where same firm as that of suspect employer—Whether choice of legal representative potentially prejudicing investigation—Whether SFO's policy on lawyers' attendance at such interviews lawful—Whether operation of such policy perverse—Criminal Justice Act 1987 (c.38.) s.2

R. (Lord and Others) v Director of the Serious Fraud Office
Queen's Bench Divisional Court [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 24

Police—Obstruction—Execution of duty—Defendant interfering in arrest of suspect—Arresting officer allegedly assaulting defendant—Whether assault

KEY WORD INDEX

providing defence to charge of obstructing officer—Police Act 1996 (c.16) s.89(2)

Metcalf v Director of Public Prosecutions
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 25

Police—Search warrants—Validity—Warrants authorising search for “computer equipment, mobile phones ... and cash representing proceeds of criminal activity”—Whether identifying, so far as practicable, articles sought—Whether appropriate means of obtaining material—Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (c.60) ss.8, 15(6)(b)

R. (Cabot Global Ltd and Others) v Barkingside Magistrates’ Court and Another
Queen’s Bench Divisional Court [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 26

Practice—Defendants charged with sexual offences against two women—Prosecution failing to disclose unused material—Trial judge staying proceedings as abuse of process—Prosecution appealing against ruling—Proper approach to abuse applications where fair trial possible but confidence in the criminal justice system in danger of being undermined—Factors to be taken into account in balancing competing public interests

R. v S(D) and S(T)
Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [2015] 2 Cr. App. R. 27